Are You Up For A Challenge?

Based on: <https://visualunit.me/2010/12/14/bible-reading-chart/>

Did you know that the Bible is still the world's most purchased book? And the world's most often stolen book? And according to the Voice of the Martyrs, so controversial and subversive it's banned or severely restricted in 52 countries? Have you ever read this extraordinary book for yourself?

Maybe you've thought of reading the Bible, but just the thought leaves you feeling faint. Maybe you've tried before and got bogged down somewhere in Leviticus. Maybe you've never tried because you've heard the Bible's a 'boring religious' book. And it's big! And has weird names in it.

Well, don't panic! If you can read, you can read the Bible! God means for the Bible to be read and understood. Apart from the living Word of God (Jesus of Nazareth) the written word of God (the Bible) is God's clearest way of communicating himself to us humans. Sure, some of God's word is hard to understand on first reading, but as Jared C Wilson tells us, the Bible is the key to its own lock! In other words, the more we read, the more we will understand.

To make reading easier for you, meet a No-Guilt Bible Reading Plan (over the page). It doesn't come with a calendar, or with a schedule, or any 'skip-day' allowances. It contains no timeline, no pressure, and most of all, no failure points. It simply contains a series of boxes for each chapter of the Bible for you to highlight, check, or mark as you work through the Bible at your own pace!

You can work through this plan any time - at the beginning or end of the year, every year, every other year, even every other decade! But the important thing is to just read. Read the Bible like a novel. And read as fast or slow as you like!

Ready to begin? Let's pray: "Heavenly Father, please help me to understand your Word, breathed out by you to teach me, show me my faults, correct me and train me how to live right before you. Amen"

(If you'd like your own Bible to read, just ask the Chaplain – the Bibles are free!)

Now, over the page and let your adventure begin!
